A message from the canteen coordinator.

Many people ask me what do volunteers do in the canteen.....

Currently the morning starts with checking lunch orders (correct money, order type etc) then you support Nina/Coby (our very dedicated canteen staff) with some minor food preparation which may involve making some sandwiches, getting hot orders in ovens and getting ready for recess service. The morning continues then with filling lunch order bags followed by some minor lunch service at the windows. Before you know it the morning is over. At all times you are under the direction of Nina or Coby. You will be offering your support in a lovely pleasant kitchen environment that is friendly, very supportive and loads of fun. No cooking experience required.

If you are still unsure, please feel free to pop into the canteen at anytime and have a look around and introduce yourself to the team. We look forward to seeing you in 2009.

Kind regards

Linda Petrone
